

CB RESERVE PRESENTS:
LARGE FORMAT BARBARESCO

The heart of the CB wine program ethos has always been about friendship, community, and the spirit of togetherness that comes from raising glasses together. We've missed that spirit this last year or so, and are excited to throw parties, gather friends, and open copious bottles in the near future, so it is with optimism and anticipation of many parties in our, and your future, that we present our new reserve box: Three giant bottles of fantastic Barbaresco from one of our favourite producers! All three of these bottles are Nebbiolos from Pelissero, all from the banner year of 2016, one of the best in recent memory with a long even growing season that promises balanced and nuanced wines. Each of these are wonderful in their own right with enough differences to allow for a crazy horizontal if you know enough people to open 9.5 Liters of wine at once!

Tulin, in the largest bottle is the most approachable, a soft and barely oak influenced wine aged for 20 months in older barrels, with velvety texture, perfect for red sauce pasta and grilled meats. Nubiola in the double magnum is the ripest, a newer blend of very small parcels with the brightest red fruit expression: a perfect after-dinner wine. Finally, in the smallest bottle, a magnum, we have the Vanotu, the densest, and most ageable of the three wines, a rich and complex expression of Nebbiolo aged for 22 months in mostly new barrels. All of these wines are fantastic now but will cellar happily until 2040!

The Decanter

As an optional add-on for this reserve, we are offering a very special price on the CB favourite Riedel Swan Decanter, the beautiful and elegant long-necked decanter we have been using at our dinners for years. This dramatic decanter does a great job of separating sediment from the wine as well as being a fantastic centerpiece. Through Riedel we are offering it as an add-on to this box for the discounted price of $599.95 each (usually $675). Just email us to add it to your order!
